32. HENRY EANES [911955], son of HENRY EANES [911555] and UNKNOWN [911556], was born before 1747 in CHESTERFIELD COUNTY, VIRGINIA and died after 1796 in PROBABLY CHARLOTTE COUNTY, VIRGINIA.

Research Notes:

He was deeded land from his father on 3 Jun 1768, recorded in Chesterfield County, Virginia DB 6, page 34.

He moved to Charlotte County, Virginia to live. He later disposed of the land given to him by his father in Chesterfield County in 1776. In the deed he is described as being from Charlotte County.

It is known that both of his sons ( Arthur & Edward) were in the Revolutionary War at Guilford Courthouse in North Carolina under General Greene. One of his descendants from Texas stated that Henry went into the Revolution with his two sons but this has not been proved.

Birth Year: Undetermined at this time.

Marriage: Date unknown. Wife's first name is MARTHA.

3 June 1768: Received Chesterfield County land in June “for love and affection”. Sold land to Mr. Sudberry in 1776. He was described at this time (1776) as being from Charlotte.

1772: This is the earliest reference to Henry Eanes in connection with Charlotte County. Charlotte County Deed Book No. 3, page 169 shows Henry Ends [Eanes] (of Chesterfield), on December 7, 1772, buying for 145 pounds “one certain tract or parcel of land (291 acres), lying, and being in the county of Charlotte” and adjoining the Louse Creek and the lands of Theophilus Field and William Call, William Hubbard, and Colonel Francis Tompkins. On December 6, 1790, Henry Eanes sold the same tract of land to John Timberlake. By this time Henry's sons had a tract of 298 acres on the Staunton River so it is assessed he moved in with them.

1781: With Charlotte County Militia and at the Battle of Guilford Court House, North Carolina on 15 March 1781. The 1968 history recorded, “One of his descendants in Texas has stated that family tradition tells that he went into the Revolutionary Army with his sons, but the official record of this has not been found.”

This oral tradition is confirmed by his son Arthur's petition for a state pension when Campbell Daniel testified that Henry “informed [Daniel] that he [Henry Eanes] had to move [Arthur Eanes] from Carolina in a cart on account of the wound”. The statement indicates Henry Eanes was present with the command at Guilford Court House.

1782: Henry Eanes is listed in the state enumeration as head of household in Charlotte County. He lists seven white persons and five black persons in the household.

1784: Charlotte County Order Book No. 5, 1780-1784 for the month of November 1784 reports, “On the motion of Henry Eanes and for reasons appearing to the Court, his son Arthur is Exempted from the payment of levies and taxes in the future.” The ruling was made by Thomas Spencer, William Morton, Edmund Read, Samuel White, Thomas Spencer, Jr. and Little Joe Morton.

1787 Census of Va Tithables: Henry is listed in the 1787 Census of Virginia tithables for no white males, two slaves over the age of 16, four slaves under the age of 16, three horses or mules and eight head of cattle. His son Arthur is also listed as being tithable for three horses or mules, and four head of cattle but is levy free due to wounds received in the Revolution at Guilford Court House. Edward is in the same list and reflects three horses, mares, colts and mules and two head of cattle. Between them, the three possess 14 head of cattle, nine horses, mares, colts & mules, four black males under 16 and two black males over 16.

1789: Charlotte County Order Book No. 10 [1794-1796], page 134 shows a “Stephen Eanes for the benefit of James Watkins, plaintiff, against Thomas Gayle and Mack Good, Defendants, [who] failed to appear. Plaintiff ordered to recover three pounds, 11 shillings and two pence farthing with interest from January 13, 1789.” This entry reveals the existence of Stephen, suggesting the existence of a possible third son for Henry.

1790: Charlotte County Will Book No. One, page 428 shows Henry and his wife Martha Eanes bearing witness for Simon Jackson regarding the spoken last words of William Womack. The entry was dated 30 January 1790.

1790: On December 6, 1790, Henry Eanes sold 291 acre tract of land along Louse Creek to John Timberlake. By this time Henry's sons had a tract of 298 acres on the Staunton River so it is assessed he moved in with them

1792-1794: Charlotte County Order Book No. 9, page 181, year undetermined, records, “On the motion of Henry Eanes, a witness for Francis Franklin in his deed against Thomas Markey it is ordered that the said Franklin pay him 259 cents for five days attendance according to law.” A follow-on entry on page 183 states, “On the motion of Henry Eanes, a witness for Francis Franklin in his suit against Thomas Markey it is ordered that the said Franklin pay him 50 cents for one day's attendance.”

1796: In June 1796 a deed gift was recorded in Charlotte County Order Book No. 10, page 189 and can be found in Charlotte County Deed Book 7, page 179. In these deeds, Henry gave his son Edward four slaves named George, Tamar, Lucy and Betty. Henry gave son Arthur four slaves named Jean, Squire, Phyllis and Amia. The wills were written on 20 February 1796 and were probated on June 1796 suggesting Henry died in early 1796.

The 1968 book states he was born before 1747.

A deed search for this land shows it was owned by Margaret Harwood, John and Mary Sneed and Hames Dugerty. They sold it to Peter Stubbs on 5 February 1770 for 85 pounds, 10 shillings. It was described as 291 acres “near Louse Creek adjoining David George, James Caldwell, William Hubbard and Francis Tompkins beginning at David George's Corner Spanish Oak at the Cole [Coal?] Pit.” Stubbs sold it at a profit 34 months later to Henry Eanes for 145 pounds. Eanes sold it to Timberlake 20 years later. Timberlake was a neighbor who combined the tract with his own for a total of 541 acres which his wife (Elizabeth) deeded over to Little Joe Morton and Francis Scott on 27 October 1795 (DB 7, p157) for trusteeship. Children John P. relinquished his claim to one-quarter on 16 February 1805 to Francis Scott. Daughters Sally (DB 11 p221), Elizabeth (DB 11 p 221, 2 Sept 1809) and son William (DB 10, p271) gave their land to John Lesseuer in 1809 and 1810, respectively. What is key is that Sally's land is described in the vicinity of Cub Creek. This information, coupled with descriptions of neighboring properties helps pinpoint the general location of the tract of land to the vicinity of western Charlotte County, probably in the vicinity and south of Rt. 619 between Harrisburg (located at the junction of Rt. 619 and Rt. 649) and Aspenhall (located at the junctions of Rt. 619, 678 and 649).

Arthur Eanes Petition to the Virginia General Assembly for a pension. Daniel's statement reads as follows: “The affidavit of Campbell Daniel a Citizen and freeholder of the County of Charlotte being first sworn deposes and saith; That a few days previous to the Battle at Guilford he saw Arthur Eanes in North Carolina he was then well and clear of any wound; That he the deponent a few days before the engagement was ordered together with others to convey the prisoners to Albermarle in Virginia---The next time the deponent saw said Eanes he was at his Father's in the County of Charlotte badly wounded in the left arm below the shoulder blade the ball continuing through the arm and coming out near the back bone: from which wound his arms is much withered and greatly disabled: The Father of said Eanes informed the deponent that he had to move him from Carolina in a cart on account of the wound: and further he has frequently heard Mr. Eanes from that time to the present complain of the injury received from that wound and believed to be cause of his affliction and further I say not: Campbell Daniel. Sworn to in the County of Charlotte before us two of the Commonwealth Justices of the Peace for said County this 4th day of November 1812. John Dennis, Wm B Morton”

Arthur Eanes' Charlotte County militia Captain at Guilford CH was Thomas Spencer.

1787 Census of Virginia (3 Volumes), Springfield, VA: Genealogical Books In Print, 1987.

This record is the source of the name 'Martha' for Henry's wife.

An 18 June 1849 inventory of Edward Eanes property, in preparation for the settlement of his estate, mentions 14 slaves. These include “one old negro woman named Tamer, one negro man named George.” This suggests Lucy and Betty died by this time. See Pittsylvania County Account Book (AC) 16, p457. Tamar was purchased by Edward's son Herbert, executor of the will, for the sum of $15 in an apparent attempt to keep her comfortable and among the family in her senior years.

Squire is the only slave mentioned in Arthur Eanes Will of 1818. In it he states, “I also desire for Squire to be sold and the money be laid out for to buy another negro man for the use of my widow and her family.” See Pittsylvania County Will Book 11, p52, 1818

Research Notes: He was given land by his father on 6 Feb 1756 (Chesterfield Co. DB 2, p age 228) He is not mentioned in the Bristol Parish Register. He evidently had more children than the one mentioned here, but there is no record of them now. He gave land that he had received from his father to his son Henry on 3 Jun 1768 (Chesterfield DB 6, page 34) It is believed from this that Henry Jr. was 21 by this time

There is much more room for work on this family.

Born: Before 1723

Son of Edward and Mary Eanes. Born in Henrico County (later Chesterfield) before 1723. He died between 1771 and 1783. He was married.

6 February 1756: Henry was given land by his father.

1762: Henry "Eans" Senior and Junior are listed on a 1762 list of Chesterfield County Tithables.

According to the 1968 history, Henry "is not mentioned in the Bristol Parish register. He evidently had more children than the one mentioned here, but there is no record of them now. He gave the land that he received from his father to his son Henry on June 3, 1768. It was believed from this that Henry Jr moved to Charlotte County to live, for he later disposed of the land that his father had given him and in the deed he is described as being in Charlotte County. At this time, his descendants are known and it is believed that Arthur and Edward, both Revolutionary soldiers, were his sons and that they are the fathers of all the Pennsylvania branch of the family. There is much room for work on this family although considerable more information is included in the 1967 book that was available in 1940 for them."

A Henry Eanes, Senior is listed on the Amelia County Tax Rolls of 1800 being tithable for one white male (himself or possibly an indentured servant), six horses, five slaves over age 16 and two slaves between 12 and 16 years of age. It is not certain these are the same men.

128. EDWARD EANES [911557] was born before 1700 and died in 1757 in CHESTERFIELD COUNTY, VIRGINIA.

Research Notes: EDWARD'S WILL IS IN WILL BOOK 1, PAGE 242 CHESTERFIELD COUNTY, VA.

1695: Born, probably in England.

1714: Arrived in Virginia as indentured servant.

In the year 1714, 608 acres of land in Henrico County was included in a grant to CHARLES HUDSON and JOHN BRADLEY then operating an organization known as "The Young Men's Adventure". The land was located on the North side of the James River on "Bever Pond" branch, the south branch of Tuckahoe Creek. The land was patented or granted on 16 June 1714. Hudson and Bradley imported 13 persons; indentured servants, to work the land and pay off their indenture over a period of years in return for payment of their passage to Virginia. The thirteen persons imported included five women: Susannah Hawkins, Rebecca Corne, Elizabeth Swan, Susanna Fludd and Eleanore Locksum and eight men; Robert Davis, John Tann, Matthew Gibbs, Thomas French, Christopher Hudson, EDWARD EANES, Richard Rite and George Scott.

1732: Married Mary Vaden in Henrico County.

 The baseline information of this lineage originates from The History of Edward Eanes of Henrico and Chesterfield Counties in Virginia written by the late Colonel Richard Henry Eanes (b. 1889-), USA, Ret. Compiling data for genetic research does not require the same type of documentation as traditional genealogical research. The genes themselves verify relationships and qualify or disqualify a person from a particular study. Citing the source of every genealogical fact in the electronic gene pool was deemed unnecessary and cost prohibitive by medical researchers. Millions of individual records were created from birth, marriage and death records; obituaries; probate records; books of remembrance; family histories; genealogies; family group sheets; pedigree charts; and other sources. The records collected that did not fit a specific study became the project's by-products and were scheduled to be discarded. After viewing the quality of the source material used to create the gene pool and despite the absence of cited documentation, the electronic rights to the data were purchased, rather than seen destroyed.
