FARRAR¹

*1. WILLIAM¹ FARRAR, baptized 28 April 1583 at Croxton, Lincolnshire,² was the third son of John Farrar the Elder (died 1628³) of Croxton and of St. Mary, Aldermanbury, London, and his wife (married 25 Aug. 1574, St. Sepulchre's Without Newgate, London) Cicely Kelke, daughter of William Kelke (died 1552) of Barnetby-le-Wold, Lincolnshire. William¹ Farrar's father was of an ancient family of Ewood, in Midgley, Parish of Halifax, Yorkshire. He was a relative of Nicholas Ferrar, Sr. (1544-1620), a merchant and leading member of the Virginia Company.⁴

William¹ Farrar left London, 16 March 1617/8, in the Neptune with Lord De La Warr and reached Virginia in Aug. 1618. Ten persons, including two servants, were killed at "Mr. Farrar's house" on the Appomattuck River in the massacre of March 1622/3,⁵ but his patent there was not recorded until May 1625.⁶ In 1623/4 when the census was taken he was living at Jordan's Journey,⁷ where, aged 31, his muster was recorded jointly with that of *Mrs. Sisley Jordan, aged 24, 1624/5. He had been appointed administrator of the estate of her husband, Samuel Jordan, 19 Nov. 1623.⁸ His interest in the widow Cicely Jordan thrust him into considerable prominence in colonial records since she, within three or four days of her husband's death, seemingly, agreed to become, in due course, the wife of the Rev. Greville Pooley, who sought to hold her to her promise. But William¹ Farrar was also a contender for her hand, and the successful one, causing the first breach of promise suit in America of record. The case reached London where the Council for Virginia returned it to Virginia, "not knowinge how to decide so nice a difference" and desired "the resolution of Civill Lawiers."⁹ The matter was resolved, Jan. 1624/5, when Mr. Pooley withdrew his suit and gave bond that he would make no further claim. Thereafter Farrar and Mrs. Jordan were married for, at a court held 2 May 1625, Farrar's bond as administrator was ordered cancelled.¹⁰

⁴ The Nicholas Ferrar family of London rendered distinguished service to the Virginia colony; see Br. Gen. II, p. 891. Nicholas Ferrar had a son William, also born about 1593, but this William was admitted to the bar in London three months after William¹, the settler, had left London for Virginia, and was dead, unmarried, by 1620. The exact degree of relationship between Nicholas Ferrar and William¹ Farrar is unknown but in a poem regarding the interest in silk culture of Nicholas' granddaughter, Virginia Farrar, 3. William² Farrar is described as "Her honoured kinsman, Esquire Farrar" (A. L. Maycock, Chronicles of Little Gitting [London, 1954], p. 96). William Farrar is apparently "Cozen Farrar" mentioned in a letter of Nicholas, 17 Jan. 1618/9 (Holmes, The Farrar's Island Family, pp. 20-24).

On 14 March 1625/6 William¹ Farrar was appointed to the Council and he served there appearntly for the rest of his life.¹¹ He was named, Aug. 1626, a commissioner "for the Upper Partes kept above Persie's Hundred," with authority to determine whether court should be held at Jordan's Journey or at Shirley Hundred.¹² The appointment was affirmed 7 March 1627/8.¹³

John Farrar the Elder in his 1628 will had bequeathed property in Great Amwell, Hoddesdon and Broxburne, Hertfordshire, and £20 annuities from the Farrar estate, "Ewood," in Yorkshire, to his son William Farrar and £50 at his return to England. He did return, briefly, for on 6 Sept. 1631 William Farrar of London, Gent., sold his brother Henry Farrar of Reading, Berkshire, for £200 the properties and annuities so bequeathed, and, since John Farrar had reserved these bequests to William's wife and children, the names of "Cecily his wife and Cecily and William his children" appear in the deed.¹⁴ He returned to Virginia and died in 1637, before 11 June, when his young son William² received a patent as his heir.

¹⁴ PRO C-54/2904, in Holmes, The Farrar's Island Family, p. 31. The deed mentions an earlier one of 28 June 1631, so William¹ was in England then.

Cicely, whose maiden name is not known, came to Virginia in the Swan with Sir Thomas Gates, arriving near the end of Aug. 1611.¹⁵ She married (1) — Baley, by whom she had a daughter *1. *Temperance*¹ Baley (see BAYLY-COCKE), and (2) *1. *Samuel*¹ Jordan (see JORDAN, Samuel), by whom she had daughters Mary and Margaret Jordan.

Issue: 2. Cicely², born 1625, mentioned 1631;¹⁶ 3. WILLIAM²; 4. John², born about 1632, mentioned in his brother's will, was prominent in the affairs of Henrico County, serving as lieutenant colonel of militia, justice from the time the county records begin in 1677, sheriff, 1683, member of the House of Burgesses, 1680-82 and 1684,¹⁷ left will 4 March 1684/5-1 April 1685, showing he was without issue and was probably unmarried and naming his "cousins" Mary Worsham, wife of George Worsham, Martha Shipley, wife of Walter Shipley of

¹⁶ Holmes, The Farrar's Island Family, p. 123, speculates that she might have been the (2) wife of 1. *Peter*¹ Montague (see MONTAGUE). It is also possible Cicely² Farrar married (1) Isaac Hutchins, who left will dated 23 Feb. 1657/8 (Henrico Co. Minute Bk. 1710-14, p. 51 et seq.), and (2) Henry Sherman, who deposed, 1 Aug. 1690, he was aged 60 (Henrico Co. Deeds & Wills 1688-97, p. 145) and left will 2 Sept. 1695-1 Oct. 1695 (ibid., p. 597), and herself referred to her "great and declining age," 30 Nov. 1702 (Henrico Co. Wills & Deeds 1697-1704, p. 307) and left will 6 Aug. 1703-1 Feb. 1703/4 (ibid., p. 364). The children of Cecily (—) Hutchins Sherman were: (by 1) [HUTCHINS] Robert, who died under age (Henrico Co. Minute Bk. 1710-14, p. 51 et seq.; (by 2) [SHERMAN] Henry, Jr., unmarried, who left will 20 Feb. 1686/7-April 1687 (Henrico Co. Wills & Deeds 1677-92, p. 425); John, unmarried, who left will 9 March 1686/7-1 April 1687 (ibid., p. 426); Anne, who married (1) 7. *John*³ Crowley (see SHARP-BAUGH), and (2) 12. *Christopher*³ Branch (see BRANCH); and Elizabeth, left will 18 Jan. 1731/2-2 Oct. 1732 (Henrico Co. Wills & Deeds 1725-37, p. 368), who married (1) Henry Trent, who left will 8 Jan. 1700/1-1 April 1701 (Henrico Co. Wills & Deeds 1697-1704, p. 215), and (2) Henry Gee, who left will 23 Oct. 1717-5 Jan. 1718/9 (Henrico Co. Miscellaneous Court Records, I, p. 407). By her (1) marriage Elizabeth (Sherman) Trent Gee had children: [TRENT] John, married —; Alexander, married 44. *Obedience*⁴ Branch (see BRANCH); Henry, left will 8 Jan. 1725/6-5 Sept. 1726 (Henrico Co. Wills & Deeds 1725-37, p. 40), married 162. *Edith*⁵ Harris (see BRANCH), who married (2) 6. *John*⁴ Osborne (see OSBORNE) and (3) Peter Fitzpatrick; Rebecca, married — Wachter; Susanna, married (1) William Womack, who left will 14 May 1718-1 Sept. 1718 (Henrico Co. Miscellaneous Court Records II, p. 369) and (2) — Nunnally; Mary, married 9. *Richard*⁵ Cox (see COX); and William, left will 17 Oct. 1768-7 April 1769 (Chesterfield Co. Charles City County, and William Farrar, Thomas Farrar and John Farrar.¹⁸

3. WILLIAM² FARRAR (William¹), born 1627, as "sonne and heire to William Farrar, late of Henrico, dec'd.," received a patent, 11 June 1637, for 2000 acres in Henrico County, joining on the east the glebe land of Varina, on the west the bottom of [] Island, on the south the main river and on the north the woods.¹⁹ On 1 Oct. 1649 he gave 200 acres of this, next to the glebe, to his brother John².²⁰

Additional land amounting to 335 acres was assigned to Capt. William² Farrar and Thomas Ligon, 3 Oct. 1664, in Henrico on the south side of James River "in Mount Malada [Mount My Lady] field, against a place where an old oven stood."²¹ This land, reported deserted by 22 July 1671, was regranted to Mr. Henry Randolph.²²

He was captain of militia by 17 Sept. 1655²³ and in 1661 was captain of the company from Turkey Island Creek to the falls on the north side of James River (except Curles).²⁴ He was a justice of Henrico County by 1 Aug. 1657²⁵ and served as a member of the House of Burgesses from Henrico, 1660 and 1661-76.²⁶ His will, 6 May 1676-Feb. 1677/8,²⁷ left land to sons William, John and Thomas, the last two under age, but did not name his daughters. He also left to his brother Capt. John² Farrar two tracts of land at Capt. Davis' bottom, totaling 500 acres, if John² would relinquish land formerly given him, called Coles' Field. Accordingly, 1 Feb. 1677/8, John² Farrar deeded back to the heirs

¹⁸ Henrico Co. Wills & Deeds 1677-92, p. 298. Although the other four were children of his brother William², since Mary Worsham was not named in the division of the estate of William², her relationship is undetermined.

⁷⁰ Perhaps William Farrar of Rockingham Co., N.C., born 19 March 1751, died 6 March 1801, married Amy ___, born 24 Sept. 1768, died 1848 in Rockingham Co., N.C. Revolutionary War pension application, William Farrar, widow Amy, W.3968, National Archives, states he enlisted in Granville Co., N.C., as a cavalryman in the North Carolina Line and was at the battle of Brandywine, and was discharged at Fort Pitt in 1781, and indicates his wife was Amy Whitworth. A Bible record with these birth dates is included, but Amy (who did not state her maiden name) never mentioned the two eldest children named therein and said she was married 19 Feb. 1792. James Hunter Chapter DAR, Early Families of the North Carolina Counties of Rockingham and Stokes with Revolutionary Service, II (Easley, S.C., 1990), p. 38, states he married, 1787, Amy [Amadick, Amadiah] Oliver, but, almost certainly incorrectly, that he was a soldier under his brothers Field and Thomas in 5th South Carolina Regiment and later in Guilford Co., N.C., militia.
