

FRANCES SWALLEY

Frances Swalley,
88, Of Farmville,
Dies January 21

JANUARY 22 — Frances Throckmorton Swalley, 88, of Farmville, passed away peacefully on Wednesday, January 21, 2015. She was born on April 27, 1926, in Prince Edward County, the daughter of the late Andrew and Callie Throckmorton.

She attended Layne's Business College. She helped her father run Throckmorton's store and took over after her father's death.

Mrs. Swalley is survived by a daughter, Andrea Lou Garrett and her husband, Floyd Garrett; two granddaughters, Lori G. Davis (Rusty) and Tabbi G. Cifers (Steven); five great-grandsons, Taylor M. Davis, Bryce C. Davis, Andrew B. Davis, and Hayden C. Davis all of Farmville, and Zachary A. Cifers of Midlothian; and a great-granddaughter, Brittany N. Cifers of Midlothian. She was preceded in death by her loving husband of fifty-seven years, Bert C. Swalley of Farmville, and two brothers, Arnold J. Throckmorton of Augusta, GA, and Roscoe Reynolds of Farmville.

She was a very generous person who dearly loved her family.

The family will receive friends at the Browning-Duffer Funeral Home, Keysville, on Thursday, January 22 from 6 to 8 p.m. A private graveside service will be held at a later date.

Mrs. Swalley is entrusted to the Browning-Duffer Funeral Home, Keysville.
