

7-6-1958
MRS. GEORGE EGGLESTON

Mrs. Ella Fulcher Eggleston, 85, wife of the late George T. Eggleston, this City, died at 2:55 p. m. yesterday in the home of son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles K. McCray, 16 Gravelly St., following a long decline in health. She had been seriously ill only one day.

A native of Patrick County and daughter of the late George W. Fulcher and Sabrina Fulcher, the deceased had made her home here the greater part of her life. She was one of the oldest members of the First Methodist Church.

Her husband died in 1923.

She leaves three daughters, Mrs. McCray, City; Mrs. George Blake, Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Thomas McGehee, Charlottesville; four sons, Carroll Eggleston and Gene Eggleston, both of Pleasant Grove; Morris Eggleston, Fieldale, and Everett Eggleston, Waverly, Tenn.; 14 grandchildren, and 19 great grandchildren.

The deceased was the sister of the late E. A. Fulcher, this City, who died here several years ago.

Funeral arrangements were incomplete last night.
