with the quit rents on the land they occupied. A study of one of the county rolls in connection with the county records, wills, deeds, etc., would be of interest.

It can be readily seen that this quit rent roll is of considerable interest and value. Unfortunately it does not include the counties between the Rappahannock and Potomac to their headwaters. These counties were Lancaster, Northumberland, Westmoreland, Richmond and Stafford. The quit rents for this section—the Northern Neck—were paid to the proprietors, the Culpeper and Fairfax families successively.

The amount derived from quit rents gradually increased. In 1684 it was £574 and in 1751, £16,433. This revenue was usually donated by the Crown for the uses of the colony.

For notices of the subject see P. S. Flippin's "Royal Government in Virginia," 233-235; P. A. Bruce's "Economic History of Virginia in the Seventeenth Century," 556-563, and references given by them.

At this time Henrico included the present Henrico and Chesterfield and westward, on both sides of the James River as far as the settlements extended. The Huguenots, just coming to Manakin Town, are not included.

MINUTES OF THE COUNCIL AND GENERAL COURT

From the Originals in the Library of Congress.

A Court at James Citty the 10th of October, 1627, present:

S'r George Yeardley, Knt. Gov. &c
Capt. West	Mr. Secretarie
Doctor Pott	Capt. Tucker
Capt. Smyth	Mr Farrar <sup>1</sup>
Mr. Persey

Whereas there remaine certaine of the Duty<sup>2</sup> boyes whose first seaven yeares of service as apprentices expired in May last past, & were from that time to begin to serve other seaven yeares as Tenants for halves, the Court hath ordered that the sayd boyes shall for the sayd time of seaven yeares as Tenants for halves, serve S'r George Yeardley, Knt. now Governor, & that he have the benefitt of their service or to make composition w'th them for the same as they will agree w'th him. And this the Court doth the rather order in regard that all the <sup>1</sup> William Farrar, or Ferrar, who was born 1594-5 and came to Virginia in the ship Neptune in 1618. He was a Commissioner (Magistrate) for the Upper Parts, a member of the Council from 1623 to 1633 and probably until his death, which occurred some time before June 11, 1637. It was once believed that he was a son of Nicholas Ferrar, Sr., of London, but this is an error. He was possibly the son of John Farrar, Esq., of London (of the Farrars, or Ferrars, of Eawood, Yorkshire), who in his will dated April 24, 1628 (this Magazine XXII, 398), made bequests to his son, William, then out of England.

<sup>2</sup> These were 50 London boys sent to Virginia in 1620, in the ship Duty, to be apprenticed to planters.
