Stover Justice Reynolds

Stover Justice Reynolds of Norwood, and formerly of Wilson N.C., surrounded by his loving family, passed away Saturday morning, March 14, 2015, at his son's home.

Mr. Reynolds was born January 17, 1919, to the late James Allen Reynolds and Sallie Fannie Wells and grew up in Pittsylvania County Va. Stover was raised on a tobacco farm, experienced the difficult Depression Era, and subsequently served his country during World War II with the U.S. Army.

His successful professional life in the international tobacco industry lasted for over forty years. Mr. Reynolds retired as Vice President of Leaf Operations with Imperial Tobacco Company of Great Britain and Ireland. Stover also served in an honorary position on the Tobacco Advisory Committee to the U.S. Secretary of Agriculture.

Mr. Reynolds was preceded by his wife, Jean Marshall Reynolds, in 2006, the couple was married for 54 years.

Surviving is his older brother, Charlie Reynolds of York, Pa.

Stover was an avid reader and loved keeping up to date with business and financial news.

Mr. Reynolds is survived by his son, John S. Reynolds and wife, Debra Page of the home; and his sole granddaughter, Ashley Reynolds of Chapel Hill, holds his heart now and always.

Much appreciated are steadfast family and friends who communicated with Stover over the years, your love and support meant the world to him.

Locally, the family will receive friends from 6 until p.m. Thursday evening, March 19, 2015, at Edwards Funeral Home in Norwood. A separate graveside service will be held at 1 p.m. Saturday, March 21, 2015, at Highland Burial Park in Danville, Virginia. This service will be officiated by the Reverend Frank Reynolds.

Memorials may be made to County Line Christian Church, 12711 Chatham Rd, Axton VA 24054
