Descendants of John Jackson

Generation No. 1

1. JOHN[1] JACKSON was born Bef. 1730, and died Bef. 1771. He married HANNAH Bef. 1750. She was born Bef. 1730, and died Abt. 1800 in Halifax County, VA.

Notes for JOHN JACKSON:
Lived on Terrible Creek, Halifax County, VA. He was there at least by 1763 when he bought the land described below.

Deed: Martin Brown of Halifax County sells to John Jackson of the same county 248 acres on the north fork of Terrible Creek, beginning at William Russell's, Givens line, John Sparrows - signed by Martin W. Brown, his wife Mary acknowledges her dower. Witness by James Bates, James Leek, William Leek, December 15, 1763 (3rd year of the reign of George 3rd.) (Halifax Deed Book 4, page 443). This is the same land he gave to his sons John, Jr., and Ephraim, below.

Deed: September 19, 1771, 248 acres Terrible Creek, John Jackson of Halifax County to Ephraim Jackson, same county, 248 acres branch of Terrible Creek, granted to Martin Brown by Letters Patent 16 August 1756 and sold to John Jackson, father to above named John and Ephraim Jackson and deeded to him. Signed John Jackson. Witnesses: George Watkins, John Leak, Micajah Watkins, Wm Lawson, John Milner. Recorded September 19, 1771. Halifax DB 8, page 260.

Hannah was his widow and she retained her dower right to one-third of the 248 acres which amounted to 80 acres. She shows up on the Halifax County tax lists until 1800. Because she was a widow she paid no taxes.

There was another John Jackson in Halifax County at the same, which greatly increases the research difficulties. He was from Amelia/Prince Edward and his family has been well researched.

Notes for HANNAH:
Her age is estimated from the fact that John, Jr., her presumed son was born before 1750. She lived until about 1800 when she went off the tax rolls - although she never paid taxes because she was a widow.

Children of JOHN JACKSON and HANNAH are:

i. JOHN[2] JACKSON, JR., b. Bef. 1750.

Notes for JOHN JACKSON, JR.:
Link to father John and brother Ephraim proven by 1771 deed cited under Ephraim Jackson. Apparently John Sr. died and under the laws of the day John Jr. being the eldest automatically inherited the land. Whether or not he stayed in Halifax County after transferring the land to his brother is not clear.

2. ii. EPHRAIM JACKSON, b. Bef. 1750; d. Abt. 1832, Pittsylvania County, VA.

Generation No. 2

2. EPHRAIM[2] JACKSON (JOHN[1]) was born Bef. 1750, and died Abt. 1832 in Pittsylvania County, VA. He married MARTHA Abt. 1775 in Halifax County,Virginia. She was born Aft. 1755, and died Aft. 1830.

Notes for EPHRAIM JACKSON:
Lived Halifax and Pittsylvania. He was in Halifax as late as 1804. He certainly was in Pittsylvania by 1806 when his daughter married.

Link to father: Halifax, September 19, 1771 - 248 acres. John Jackson of Halifax to Ephraim Jackson of Halifax for L 30, 248 acres on Terrible Creek, part of tract granted to Martin Brown 16 Aug 1756. Sold by said Brown to John Jackson, father to above named John and Ephraim Jackson and deeded to him, etc. Witnessed by George Watkins, John Leak, Micajah Watkins, Wm Lawson and John Milner (Halifax County, DB 8, page 260).

Death date: "Vestry Book of Camden Parish 1767-1820" page 165, stated by Overseer of Poor , June 5, 1820: To Ephraim Jackson for his support in the hands of John Emmerson (his son-in-law). However, he must have recovered because the 1830 census shows him as being over 80 but under 90, thus born 1740-1750.

Other deeds: Ephraim Jackson of Halifax to Daniel Palmer of same....9,000 lbs of tobacco...248 acres on North Folk of Terrible Creek (land cited in 1771 deed above)...on Stephen's line, along his line to Hunt's line, along sd line to Prewitt's line, along to Vaughan's line, along his line to Brown's line, along his line to be. In 1816, Ephraim Jackson gives to "my son" Levi Jackson personality, including a bed and walnut chest, family Bible, etc. (Pittsylvania Deed Book 22, page 158, January 18, 1816).

Date of marriage estimated from date of birth of first child. In addition to the children identified, he should have had a son named John for his father.

Children of EPHRAIM JACKSON and MARTHA are:

3. i. EPHRAIM[3] JACKSON, JR., b. 1775; d. July 17, 1859, Washington County, VA.
4. ii. SALLY JACKSON, b. 1778, Halifax County, VA; d. Aft. 1850, Pittsylvania County, VA.
5. iii. ELIZABETH JACKSON, b. Abt. 1780; d. Bef. 1844, Pittsylvania County, VA.
6. iv. ABEL JACKSON, b. 1781, Halifax County, VA; d. Aft. 1850.
7. v. MARTHA JACKSON, b. 1783, Halifax County, VA; d. September 10, 1870, Pittsylvania County, VA.
8. vi. ELI JACKSON, b. Abt. 1785, Virginia; d. Aft. 1870, Monroe Township, Daviss County, MO..
vii. HANNAH JACKSON, b. Abt. 1786; m. JOHN BOWLING, 1806, Pittsylvania County, VA.

Notes for HANNAH JACKSON:
Date of birth estimated from the 1830 census which shows her as age 40-50, thus born between 1780 and 1790. She was most probably named for her father's mother Hannah Jackson.

Notes for JOHN BOWLING:
His name was given as "Bolling" in the 1830 census.
In 1844 a James Bowling sold land in Pitts to James Jackson, Hannah's brother. What connection James might have had to John and Hannah Bowling is not known. (Sept 2011)

9. viii. JAMES JACKSON, b. Abt. 1790, Virginia; d. Bef. October 18, 1847, Pittsylvania County, VA.
ix. LEVI JACKSON, b. Abt. 1795, Pittsylvania County, VA; d. 1833, Pittsylvania County, VA; m. ANN EMMERSON, December 24, 1822, Pittsylvania County, VA; b. 1785, Pittsylvania County, VA; d. Bef. September 19, 1864, Pittsylvania County, VA.

Notes for LEVI JACKSON:
Link to parents: Ephriam Jackson gave to "my son" Levi Jackson personal property including bed and walnut chest, family Bible, etc.
(Pittsylvania County DB 22, page 158, January 1816).

In the 1830 census for Pittsylvania County he was shown as being between 30 and 40, thus born between 1790 and 1800.
This census is a mystery because it shows in his house hold 2 boys under 5, one between 10 and 15, and one between 15 and 20. Girls are one under 5, 1 between five and ten and 1 between ten and fifteen. His wife was shown as being between 30 and 40.

Will: His will was drawn 16 August 1833 (Pittsylvania Will Book 1, page 255) and probated 16 December 1833. In it, he directs his just debts be paid. All remaining part to my beloved wife Ann Jackson, one half to be disposed of as she may think proper. The remaining half at her death to be divided equally between: Susan Martin Jackson and James Andrew Jackson, children of James Jackson, provided they remain with my said wife Ann until they come of age or marry and each of them to pay to Sally W. Dunn, daughter of Matthew Dunn $50 to said Sally Dunn. Land whereon I live to James A. Jackson, son of James Jackson, after death of my wife and should land be more than his sharea to pay unto Susan M. Jackson the over plus. Executors wife Ann and Tavenor C. Shelton. Witnessed by Timothy Fuller and Nathan Dunn.

This indicates that Susan Martin Jackson and James Andrew Jackson were already in his household in 1833. Susan was born about 1822 and James Andrew about 1829, so they were eleven and four, respectively, when Levi drew his Will. Their father James Jackson lived until 1847 and gave his consent when his daughter Susan Martin Jackson married John J. Bryant in 1839. She named a daughter Judith.

Notes for ANN EMMERSON:
She was mentioned in her father's Will and was to have everything else after her mother died.

Parents: Proven by her father's 1818 Will.
Birth: At the time of the 1850 census she stated she was 65 years old, thus born about 1785; in 1860 she said she was 77, thus born about 1783. In 1830 she was shown as being between 30 and 40, thus born between 1790 and 1800.

In 1840 she was head of household with a boy 10-15 and a girl 15-20. She was described as being between 50 and 60, thus born 1780-1790.

She and her sister Judith had married brothers, Levi and James Jackson. For whatever reason, not known now (2006), she raised two of her sister's children: Susan Martin Jackson and James Andrew Jackson. She lived with her nephew James until her death.

In 1859, she, James Andrew Jackson and Martha J. his wife, and Susan Martin Jackson Bryant sold 70 and one half acres to James A. Mitchell (Pittsylvania DB 58, page 320).

At the time of the 1850, with James Andrew Jackson as head of household, with Ann Jackson a member of that household, he reported the real estate worth $3000.

Her Will, written 24 September 1859 and probated 19 September 1864, asked that her just debts be paid, left personal property to her niece Sally Grant (Sarah Jackson married William Grant 2 January 1848); gave niece Susan M. Bryant half of all real estate and personal property, "monies on hand, blue chest, bed I lie on," - gave nephew James A. Jackson, all residue of estate both real and personal. She appointed "my friend, Achilles H. Moorman" to be Executor (Pittsylvania Will Book 2, page 439).

In 1859, James Andrew, his wife Martha J., and sister Susan Martin sold the land they had inherited from Levi Jackson to James A. Mitchell (Pitts Deed Book 58, page 320, February 25, 1859).
Death: Mike K. Williams, "Pittsylvania County, VA Births & Deaths," 1998. Stonewall Jackson, his great-grandson said he was murdered near Grady in Pittsylvania County by a man named Hankins who was the only person ever hanged in Chatham, the courthouse for Pittsylvania County.

This is validated by an article in Piedmont Lineages, Vol. XXIX, No. 3, August 2007, page 84: "Hankins was no stranger to violence. In 1872 he cut James A. Jackson, inflicting wounds which proved to be fatal. He was convicted of second degree murder and served a 10-year term in the penitentary." (In 1897 he murdered Dr. John R. Cabell and was hanged in November of that year.)

Notes for MARTHA JANE THOMPSON:
When she married, her father was named as William Thompson. She was underage in 1849, placing her birth after 1828.

By the time of the 1880 census she was a tenant living in Leatherwood, Henry County, Virginia with four children in the household. Her age was given as 50. Children listed were Alma, 25; Dixie B., 15, J. Stonewall, 13; Ann E., 12, and grandson Walter.

In the 1900 census, she was shown as Martha J. Jackson, mother-in-law, age 73, both parents born in Virginia, in the household of Robert Adams. His wife Annie E. was born 1860. They named a son James.

Death Certificate 195, Caswell County, Pelham, Aug. 4, 1933. Address was given as RFD 5, Danville. He was a farmer. His obituary was printed in the Danville Bee, Saturday, August 5: Funeral services will be held Sunday morning at eleven o'clock for Monroe L. Jackson who died last night shortly before eight o'clock at the home of his daughter Mrs. Walter Gauldin near Shady Grove Church. The services will be held at the home of Mrs. J.M. Rigney on Wylie Avenue. Mr. Jackson was 84 years of age and was a native of Callands being a son of the late James Andrew Jackson of that place. Mr. Jackson is survived by the following children: Mrs. Walter Gauldin of Shady Grove, Madison L. Jackson of Martinsville, Mrs. Ida Oakes of Gallances and Mrs. Hoppie Rigney of this city. He also leaves one brother, James Stonewall Jackson of Texas, and a sister, Mrs. Cora Tate of Danville. (Ida Oakes was not his daughter but his step -daughter, being the daughter of Ellen Rigney and Benjamin Turner Clements.)

His death certificate gives his name as Monroe L. Jackson, age 82, Farmer, son of James A. Jackson and Martha Thompson. The informant for the certificate was Pearl Rigney.

He was buried in Leamont Cemetery but there is no stone.

Notes for ELEANOR SIDNEY RIGNEY:
Dates of birth and death from her g.s. in Callands, Pittsylvania County.
Marriage certificate gives her name as Elleanor, but she generally was called "Ellen." Certificate also gives her mother's name as Sallie Rigney and leaves blank the name of the father. She gave her age as 46, when actually it should have been 50. He gave his as 40, when it should have been 44.

Listed as Ellen Rigney, she was living next door to her parents, Owen and Sallie Rigney in 1870, with William J., 7; Ben L, 4; Albert, 3; Mollie, 1; and Babe (female), 4 months. In 1880 she was described as 32, with the following children in the house: Albert, 11; Mary E., 10; Saml H., 9; Horis G., 8; Robert M. 7, Ida B., 4, James H. 3; and Madison M. Rigney, 9 months. I believe that all of these children, except Madison M., were children of Benjamin Turner Clement.

She had a long relationship with Benjamin Turner Clement by whom she had nine children. She then had four who were adopted by Levi Monroe who she married in 1894.

Her g.s. reads " Ellen J. Rigney, 1844-1904, A tender mother and a faithful friend."

Notes for MADISON MONROE JACKSON:
Birth: Pittsylvania County birth records.
Marriage: Marriage certificate, Danville, Va. His name was given as "Mat" and he was 21 years old, born in Pittsylvania County and a resident of that county, as well. His parents were given as Alex & Ellen Jackson (which contradicts the facts). The record was filed 27 July 1929. No explanation for the delay.
Death: Certificate of Death, #26788, Commonwealth of Virginia. It gives his birth as July 10, 1888, Pittsylvania County; parents M.M. Jackson and Martha Rigney. (Actually his parents were Levi Monroe Jackson and Ellen Rigney.) He was described as a farmer and furniture (company) employee.
Birth: Stonewall Jackson, his son, told me he got his father's birth date from the family Bible of Aunt Oakes, his father's half-sister.
However, he had to register for the draft in 1918. His registration gives his age as 38 (thus born 1880), names his wife Lousetta Wells, Jackson, signs his name as "Matt". He is described as short and stout. The only mention I have found of this child is the 1880 census when he is shown as a son in the household of Ellen Rigney.
